

CITY OF LODI COUNCIL COMMUNICATION

AGENDA TITLE: Public Hearing to consider adoption of the 2007 California Building Code, Mechanical Code, Electrical Code, and Plumbing Code with local amendments and revise building permit fee schedule 1A, along with fees for Building, Mechanical, Plumbing, and Electrical permits.

MEETING DATE: October 17, 2007

PREPARED BY: Community Development Department

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Open a Public Hearing to consider adoption of the 2007 California Building Code, 2007 California Mechanical Code, 2007 California Electrical Code, and 2007 California Plumbing Code with local amendments, revise building permit fee schedule 1A, along with fee increases for Building, Mechanical, Plumbing, and Electrical permits, and continue the public hearing to November 7, 2007 to allow for additional review and comment.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 18938, the California Building Standards Commission has selected January 1, 2008 as the effective date for the 2007 California Building Code, 2007 California Mechanical Code, 2007 California Electrical Code, and 2007 California plumbing Code.

Every three years, Building/Construction Codes are amended by the State to include provisions of the most recent version. The State of California Building Standards Commission adopts new State standards which cities and counties are therefore mandated to adopt. If codes with amendments are not adopted locally by January 1, 2008, then cities are required to follow State codes only. The need for the new ordinances is to adopt specific Appendixes not adopted by the state such as Administration chapters for each code which was all inclusive in the existing codes.

The major change in this code cycle is the adoption of the California Building Code which is based on the 2006 International Building Code. In 1994, BOCA, (Building Officials and Code Administrators), ICBO (International Conference of Building Officials) and SBCCI (Southern Building Code Congress International) created the ICC (International Code Council) to develop a single set of comprehensive, coordinated model construction codes that could be used throughout the United States and around the world. The first International Code published was the 1995 International Plumbing Code. By 2000 a complete family of 11 construction codes was available. Around 2001 more than 97% of U.S. cities, counties and states that adopted model codes choose building and fire codes created by the three building safety groups that make up the ICC. The change from the Uniform Building Code to the International / California Building Code will have significant changes. These changes will have some benefits and restrictions compared to the existing Uniform Codes. Some of the changes in the new code are as follows: 1) additional allowable area for building size 2) occupant load factors "the number of people capable of occupying the building which determine the number of required exits" can be adjusted by the building official, 3) different processes for determining building location on property 4) Fire rated construction and protected and unprotected openings.

APPROVED:

Blair King, City Manager

In fiscal year 2005-2006 the Community Development Department became a special revenue fund, to achieve one hundred percent self sustaining funds there is a fee increase proposed. We are proposing an alternate fees structure due to the new building code, which has eliminated fee Table 1A which was the source of fees in the current code. (Exhibit A) we estimate these fees will adequately cover our costs for building inspection services. The new fee schedule would be an all inclusive fee which would cover all Mechanical, Plumbing and Electrical permit fees for all new construction. The new fee structure will also make it easier for the applicant to get complete building permit fee information in advance. By making the building permit fee an all inclusive fee the applicant can receive their Building permit fees in advance or at time of submittal. Previously the applicant would not receive the final fee summery until the final plan review was performed. At final plan review the plan reviewer would count all electrical fixtures, mechanical equipment and plumbing fixtures to determine the complete building permit fee. By doing the all inclusive fee, the complete building permit fee is based on building valuation determined at the time of application. This type of fee schedule is now an industry standard.

City Staff conducted a comprehensive analysis of staff time and city costs relative to the provision of city building service which are to be fully funded by the building fees. The proposed fee schedule eliminates separate fees for mechanical, plumbing and electrical permits and incorporates all in to the building permit fee. While the proposed building permit fee schedule shows an increase, the greatest increase is in the plan check fee. The plan check fee is proposed to increase from the current 65% of the building fee to 100% of the building fee. The plan check process is a significant and time consuming step and the proposed fee reflects the time involved. Staff has prepared a permit fee comparison for our most common commercial and a typical residential use to compare existing and proposed fees (exhibit D) The building permit fee increase is comprised of three factors 1) updated building Valuation Data Table, 2) actual hourly cost for inspection service 3) actual hourly cost for plan review services as shown in (exhibit C). While fees are to be based on local cost components only and projections are speculative do to the variety and quantity of future projects, we have reviewed other area jurisdictions for fee comparison (exhibit B). This comparison shows that our proposed fees for both the commercial and residential uses are slightly more than Modesto and Rocklin. They are significantly less than Stockton, and Sacramento County fees. Sacramento's fees are roughly the same as our proposed fees.

We have tried to notify all affected parties by publication in the Lodi News Sentinel as well as notices provided at the front counter. Handout packets describing the major changes will be available at the front counter. We also discussed the code changes with all Contactors, Developers and Architects we meet with or have contact with for the past three months.

Therefore, it is recommended that the Council open a public hearing to consider adoption of the 2007 California Building, Mechanical, Electrical, and Plumbing Codes, and the new building permit fee schedule 1A as presented and continue the public hearing to November 7, 2007. Continuing to November 7, 2007 allows additional time for interested parties to review and comment on the proposed codes and new fee schedule. The Ordinances and fee table have been presented in highlightstrike-out format to more easily identify the changes to aid in review.

FISCAL IMPACT: The fee increase is needed to help balance the resources and expenditures of the Community Development special revenue fund. As a result of the fee increases it is also anticipated that there will be no need to impact the General Fund.

The provisions set forth in the 2007 California Building Code, Volumes 1, 2, including Appendix Chapter 1 Administration, Appendix I, J, and A1 thereto, are hereby adopted as the Building Code of the City of Lodi. The Building Code of the City of Lodi shall apply to all matters pertaining to the erection, construction, enlargement, alteration, repair, moving, removal, conversion, demolition, occupancy, equipment, use, height, area, and maintenance of buildings or structures in the City of Lodi, California; the issuance of building permits and the collection of fees therefore; and the enforcement of the rules and regulations as set forth in said "2007 California Building Code," Volumes 1, 2, and appendixes thereto.

15.04.020 CBC Appendix Chapter 1 (Board of Appeals):

Sec.112.1 - In order to determine the suitability of alternate materials and types of construction and to provide for reasonable interpretations of this Chapter, the City Council shall sit as a board of appeals. The Building Official shall be an ex-officio member and shall act as secretary of the Board. Three members present shall constitute a quorum and no act of the board shall be valid unless a majority of the full board shall concur therein.

The board of appeals shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for conducting a meeting and investigations and shall render a decision and findings in duplicate. A copy will go to the Building Official with the other copy to the applicant.

- A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, special inspection fees required to determine compliance with this Chapter for all buildings and structures located within the area designated by Lodi Municipal Code Section 13.12.195(B) as the “downtown business district” are waived.
- B. The City Council finds and declares that the waiver of special inspection fees is taken to protect and preserve a crucial part of City’s economy and to preserve a portion of the City’s heritage by offering incentives for businesses to locate, relocate, or expand existing commercial uses within the downtown “business district.”

15.04.050 Repetitive submittals (Master Plans):

- A. Fees for the repetitive submittals of Master Plans shall be as follows:
 - 1. Original plan: 100% of building permit fee, plus 10%.

- A. It is unlawful for any person to erect, construct, enlarge, alter, repair, move, improve, remove, convert, or demolish, equip, use, occupy, or maintain any building or structure located within the City, or cause the same to be done, contrary to or in violation of any of the provisions of this Chapter.

- B. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions or failing to comply with any of the mandatory requirements of this Chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable on conviction as set forth in Chapter 1.08 of this Code. Each separate day or any portion of thereof, during which any violation of this Chapter occurs or continues, shall be deemed to constitute a separate offense and punished accordingly.
- C. In addition to the penalties set forth in Section 15.04.060 (B) above, City may at its sole discretion, seek to enforce this Chapter under Chapter 1.10 of this Code.

Section 2. No Mandatory Duty of Care: This ordinance is not intended to and shall not be construed or given effect in a manner which imposes upon the City, or any officer or employee thereof, a mandatory duty of care towards persons or property within the City or outside of the City so as to provide a basis of civil liability for damages, except as otherwise imposed by law.

Section 3. Severability: If any provision of this ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application. To this end, the provisions of this ordinance are severable. The City Council hereby declares that it would have adopted this ordinance irrespective of the invalidity of any particular portion thereof.

Section 4. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are repealed insofar as such conflict may exist.

Adoption of the 2007 California Codes

Public Hearing
October 17, 2007

Code adoption

- The California Building Standards Commission has selected January 1, 2008 as the effective date for the 2007 California Building Codes.

Code adoption

- Every three years, building/construction codes are amended by the State of California.
 - Cities and counties are mandated to adopt State standards .
 - If City codes with amendments are not adopted by January 1, 2008, then those jurisdictions are required to follow State codes only.

Change in this code cycle

- 1) The major change in this code cycle is the adoption of the 2007 California Building Code (Which is based on the 2006 International Building Code).

Change in this code cycle

2) Move from Uniform Building Code to International/California Building Code.

- Has benefits / restrictions compared to existing Uniform Codes:
 - additional allowable area for building size;
 - occupant load factors for exit requirements that can be adjusted by the Building Official;
 - processes for determining building location on property and fire-rated construction along with new methods of determining the requirements for protected and unprotected openings.

Change in this code cycle

- 3) The new code is a performance based code which gives a building designer additional design options not provided in the existing code.

Fee schedule changes

- Due to the new building code, we are proposing a new fee schedule.
 - City staff conducted a comprehensive analysis of staff time and city costs relative to the provisions of City building services which are to be fully funded by the building fees.

Fee schedule changes

- New schedule would be all inclusive fee to cover all Building, Mechanical, Electrical and Plumbing fees.
 - Currently fees are manually calculated separately during plan review.
 - The new fee schedule would be based on expected staff time. We are using the updated building valuation table to reflect staff time: higher value projects = more staff time.
 - Permit fees can to be calculated in advance.
 - This type of fee schedule is now an industry standard.

Cost recovery

- Because the new building code is performance based the plan review process is more complex and time consuming. The proposed increase plan review fee would reflect the time involved.

Fee comparison and cost recovery

- In the Staff report exhibit D presents a comparison for existing and proposed permit fees for typical commercial and residential applications it is comprised of three factors.
 - an updated building valuation data table.
 - actual hourly cost for inspection services.
 - actual costs for plan review services (see exhibit C) of the staff report.

Fee comparison

- Exhibit B presents a fee comparisons among other jurisdictions
 - Fees are determined by City cost/expenses while providing building services.

Public communication

- Announcement of the new code adoptions have been publicized in the Lodi News Sentinel and Community Development Department counter.
 - Staff provided the BIA with proposed changes and have discussed the code changes with Contactors, Developers and Architects we meet with or have contact with over the past three months.

Public communication

- Therefore, it is recommended that the Council open a public hearing to consider adoption of the 2007 California Building, Mechanical, Electrical, and Plumbing Codes, and the new building permit fee schedule 1A as presented and continue the public hearing to November 7, 2007.
 - Continuing to November 7, 2007 allows additional time for interested parties to review and comment on the proposed codes and new fee schedule.
